

State CFAC Information

As the result of the State CFAC being codified in law (S.L.2006-142 Section 5- see attached), the State CFAC was disbanded and efforts to create the new State CFAC are underway. As the law states, there are now 5 different appointing authorities for the new committee.

We are all interested in seeing the new committee up and running as soon as possible and are making every effort to make that happen. Once appointments are secured from the appointing authorities and the new committee is constituted, that fact and information about the new committee and its members will be broadcast from the Department. See the statute below:
